<input type="checkbox"/> DAN KEATING PIONEER IN BRAIN INJURY AWARD Description: This award is presented to an individual whose initiative, expertise, and creativity have led to the development of services and supports in the field of brain injury rehabilitation. Given in honor of Dr. Dan Keating, former BIAPA Board member and president, this award formally recognizes this individual's significant role in advancing the field.	<input type="checkbox"/> SERVICE TO BRAIN INJURY COMMUNITY AWARD Description: This award will be given to a person who has sustained a brain injury, a family member, or a professional who works in the field and is a resident of PA. This recipient will have shown extraordinary and exemplary service in educating and raising social awareness of the needs of persons with brain injury and their families. This individual has taken the initiative to make long-term, fundamental and positive impacts on the lives of people who have sustained a brain injury and their families.
<input type="checkbox"/> ORGANIZATION AWARD Description: This award is presented to an organization whose efforts to improve the lives of persons with brain injury have been clearly evident and have contributed to exemplary service delivery and support. This award is given in recognition of the collective activities of that group of individuals who, through their mission and focus on the needs of those in the brain injury community, have impacted the lives of individuals in a positive way.	<input type="checkbox"/> JOHN SEARS INSPIRATION AWARD Description: This award is presented to an individual who has overcome significant challenges and who has utilized his or her talents and strengths to inspire others to reach their goals. This award honors John Sears, accomplished artist, dedicated teacher, and devoted husband, father and grandfather, who despite the challenges of a traumatic brain injury from a 1985 bicycling accident, continued to teach and create art until his death in 2009.
<input type="checkbox"/> BARB DIVELY ADVOCACY AWARD Description: This award is named after a true advocate and champion for the rights of those who have experienced a brain injury, and their families. Barb Dively spent much of her adult life educating, training and advocating for those in the greater brain injury community. Serving as executive director of the Acquired Brain Injury Network, she helped numerous individuals through her support and her efforts to secure much-needed services and funding to help those with brain injuries. This award will continue to honor those who show the same energy and passion that Barb demonstrated. This award will preserve Barb's legacy well into the future as we recognize persons who advocate and champion tirelessly for persons impacted by brain injury.	<input type="checkbox"/> DENNIS MINORI FAMILY TRIBUTE AWARD Description: This award is given to a family who has a member with a brain injury. The recipient is a family who stands together in the face of hardship, works together to support each other, and strives to improve the quality of life for the person with brain injury. This award recognizes the family's constant commitment to their loved one, benefiting others in the brain injury community by their example of devotion and resilience.
<input type="checkbox"/> SERVICE TO THE ASSOCIATION AWARD Description: This award is given to a person who has, through volunteerism, fundraising, and other efforts, supported the mission and vision of BIAPA and contributed to the ongoing success of the Association. All professionals, survivors and family members are eligible. Members of the BIAPA Board of Directors are excluded from consideration.	<input type="checkbox"/> LEADERSHIP AWARD Description: This award is presented to an individual, agency, or group of individuals whose far-reaching impact on the field of brain injury rehabilitation has been widely recognized. A willingness to go the extra mile is the outstanding characteristic of this recipient in promoting the cause and goal of improving each and every life.
<input type="checkbox"/> PUBLIC POLICY AWARD Description: BIAPA believes that the development of beneficial public policies is essential to the rights of individuals who have sustained brain injuries and their families. This award recognizes outstanding individuals in our state who made noteworthy efforts to establish public policies of benefit to persons with brain injury.	<input type="checkbox"/> DIRECT SERVICE AWARD Description: This award honors a front-line staff member who provides exemplary service to individuals with brain injury. It recognizes the "unsung hero" who has worked for five years or more in the field of brain injury rehabilitation and has shown dedication and commitment to the individuals they serve.
